INT. BOEING CLOWN CAR DIVISION BOARD ROOM - DAY

A panel of 3 clowns sit at a long table with microphones in front of them. CLOWN 1 is making balloon animals. CLOWN 2 is practicing a magic trick with cards. A man in a suit, walks in and slams down a telephone book thick document. The cards fly everywhere.

MAN

So, you jokers sent emails to each other discussing the safety of the design of the MAXI 737 CLOWN CAR that killed 25 clowns?

CLOWN 1

What? When I built that thing it could hold at least 40 clowns!

Clown 1 is distracted with his balloon creation squeaking along. The man takes it and pops it.

MAN

All fun and games until a bunch of Bozos sacrifice safety for laughs and a bunch of rabbits in hats get smushed.

CLOWN 2

Oh those poor rabbits!(starts crying)

Clown 2 takes miscellaneous things out of his pockets, throws them over his shoulder, goes through attached line of hankies, which he blows his nose with, which honks.

MAN

Why didn't it go through the testing that all clown cars are supposed to go through?

CLOWN 1

Not trying to be funny, but when you're done with clown college the last thing ya wanna do is more tests. (beat) After you work for peanuts for so long you get desperate...

The man grabs Clown 1 by his lapel.

MAN

Real joker aren't ya. Your whole company's goin' down...So unless you wanna juggle balls in jail and eat rubber chicken you better let me have it.

Clown 1's flower squirts him in the face. Clown 2 gives a hanky.

CLOWN 2

All right, that's enough, I'll tell you!

CLOWN 1

Don't do it Slappy! Don't tell him!

MAN

Tell me what? You better start singin' ya buffoon.

CLOWN 1

We're not the ones you want. It comes from the top...we may have built it but our supervisors approved it. Blame them!

MAN

Who's your supervisor?

Enter two guys in gorilla costumes. One beats his chest and snorts. The other follows suit.

CLOWN 1

Sorry guys but you had it coming!

MAN

You're under arrest, you -- primates!

Man moves to arrest, the gorilla jumps back and removes his mask. So does the other.

GORILLA 1

We aren't monkeys, we're really just simulators!
